SURVIVE THE EARTHQUAKE WITH JACKSON

Imagine you're with Jackson on the docks when the earthquake hits. Help him by filling in the blanks below. Then use the numbered letters from #1-4 to spell an important message from the book in #5. (Need a hint? Use the page numbers to find the word in the novel.)

1. You and Jackson are leaving the docks after delivering Uncle Solly's note when your bodies start to _____ and someone screams, "Earthquake!" (pg. 66)

1                      2                      3                      4                      2

2. You _____ yourselves against a parked car, expecting the earthquake to stop, but it doesn't. Instead, the roaring gets louder and the shaking gets harder! (pg. 68)

_____

3                      5                      2

3. The bridge shakes so _____ that you bounce up and down. You grab onto each other, but a fissure splits open and you fall into a pit! (pg. 68)

_____

6                      7                      4                      2                      8                      1                      4                      9

4. You're scrambling to get out, using all your strength to give Jackson a boost, when a spray of freezing water blasts you up and out! You crash onto the street, coughing and choking because water _____ into your mouths. (pg. 74)

_____

10                      11                      12                      2

5. As you lie there, you realize that the ground has finally stopped shaking. Jackson grabs your arm and says, "Let's get to work." What is he saying to you?
